Happy Sunday babes! I don't know about you, but when I think of summertime, I think of Lilly Pulitzer. Since it has finally started to feel like summer break thanks to the pool and sunshine I thought I would share my latest Lilly dress with you! I got this dress in Hilton Head at the Lilly Pulitzer S.M. Bradford Co. which is one of my favorite places to shop on the beautiful island! My favorite thing about Lilly dresses, other than the bright colors, is the sassy details! This dress features the classic tie in the back, and has a cutout on the front as well. I am loving the new styles that are coming out recently. (Especially the cutout at the waist with lace...bravo.)
